Chicago. All eyes are turned towards Chicago. vention. Every man has his own notion as old rule prevails it will require only 411 to who will be the nominee.

Naturally the prospective nomination excites just now more interest than the expected platform. The predictions as to the nominee are, however, irreconcilable one

In 1844 the Democratic National Convention dropped the prominent aspirants and nominated General Taylor. In 1852 the Virginia Republican? Democratic National Convention dropped all the leading aspirants and nominated FRANKeading aspirants won in each case.

But who is the dark horse this year? We might say paradoxically that the dark horse of this year is not a dark horse at all-certainly not such a dark horse as Pelk or PIERCE. The dark horse of ISSS is JAMES G. BLAINE, the most popular man in the Republican party, and the man who holds within his grasp a majority of the votes in the Chiago Convention. He has only to express a willingness to accept the honor to insure him the nomination on the first ballot, Thus he is a dark horse in a new sense- not a horse whose qualities nobody knows, and who unexpectedly wins a race for the nomination, but a dark horse whose qualities are known to all the world. He is, we repeat, a new kind of dark horse.

But will Mr. BLAINE be nominated without his consent? If nominated at all, he must be nominated without his consent, He has said explicitly that as he could not secept a nomination without subjecting himself to the charge of wronging his friends, he could not accept it at all. That meansif it does not mean refusal to accept at allthat Mr. BLAINE cannot accept the nomination unless it comes to him from the friends of all the candidates and without any knowledge on his part that it was to come.

Will be accept if all these conditions exist? It seems to us that this is what his most intimate, confidential friends calculate upon. The convention must nominate him and adjourn if it would compel him to accept. This it will be forced to do if he is where a cablegram cannot reach him whilst the convention is in session. But how the difficulty is to be surmounted if he is within reach of the cable we cannot imagine. The convention cannot adjourn until it has nominated a candidate for Vice-President.

But how as to the dark horses of the old sort? Will Allison, or Alger, or some other candidate who commands but few votes secure the prize? Perhaps so. We have for some days looked upon ALGER as the favorite of the Blaineltes. DEPEW also is looming up.

Mr. John S. Wise's Brief. Mr. John S. Wisn's reasons for claiming seats in the Republican National Convention for himself and Mt. MORGAN TREAT are not likely to be considered very important at this particular time. There are plots and counterplots being entered into at Chicago this morning, but we suppose that the average delegate as totally unconcerned as to whether Mr. Wise or Mr. TREAT, or their opponents, shall be admitted into the con-

Nevertheless, we cannot allow Mr. Wise's pamphlet to pass without notice. He has put into it, in fine letter-press, Manone's secret circular denouncing Mr. BLAINE. This was a strategic move on the part of Mr. Wise and will help, or siready has helped, him and Mr. TREAT in their contest.

" machine," and tells how it is that the little General manages to make so presentable an appearance before the Chicago Convention. He shows that it is and has always been a machine that would grind out just what Manone wanted and nothing else. He says that a deep and widespread feeling has existed that a change in the plan of organiza tion must be made to secure to the party s following sufficient to give them a victory. This feeling has been augmented and intensified by the fact that they have never won a victory since the present plan was adopted while operating under it, and by the growing conviction that the "managerial policy" of the chairman has been ever dictated by goods. The prices at which they have been personal ambition and resentments rather marked will certainly make them go. than by any broad policy conceived and carried out for the good of the Republican

Mr. WISE says MAHONE has treated him as "an enemy, a deserter, and a traitor." He claims that he (Wise) has built up the Repub-lican party in Richmond from 5,224 in 1885 to 6,535 in 1887. He says there are in the Po to 6,535 in 1887. He says there are in the Republican party of Richmond about 1,800 whites and 4,700 blacks. We don't think there are half that number of white Republicans. Of the number, whatever it is, there are but five in sympathy with Manone-to wit, R. F. WALKER, S BLAIR MORRIS, E. P. MURPHY, DOUGLAS WORTHAM, and J. H. 66 CHILDREY. In this connection Mr. WISH makes some damaging charges, which we will not repeat. He charges that certain persons were bribed.

After dropping was own the wool was pulled over his eyes.

"When the convention assembled said Ed-mund Waddill, by virtue of being chairman of the district, called it to order and deignated said Southward as temporary chairman. Said Wad-dill had pretended neutrality as between said Nahone and his opponents. The Richmond dele-gation, which contained nearly all the available material among petitioners' friends, being con-gested, it was improper to choose a chairman rom it, and being assured by what had passed reprecessaid Southward and your petitioners had he was no party to the scheme to steal the easts of the Richmond delegation, your petition-ers merced to make him permanent chairman, and he was so chosen unanimously. it was manifest in a few moments that he was fully in sympathy with Mahone's plans and purposes. * J. W. Southward took a delegate's place to Chicago as his share, while said John Mitchell, Jr., one of the bogus delegation from Richmond, received the appointment as the other delegate as the reward of his desertion."

But enough. Mr. Wisz must do his fightsugh. Mr. Wise must do his fighting in Chicago.

RICHMOND, VA., September 6, 1887.

General George J. Hundley, Amelia Courthouse, Va. : Dear Sir,—Our mutual friend, Mr. Charles E. Wingo, informs me that you desire my opinion of the Otterburn Lithia and Magnesia Water. I am satisfied that it is one of the finest waters in this country for Atonic Dyspepsia, and the tests I have subjected it to have been numerous, but always satisfactory. I esteem it equally high in disorders of the urinary organs—for several of my cases of Kidney trouble have improved more rapidly under the use of the Otterburn Water than Bethesda or Buffalo Lithia. To prove my appreciation I am daily using it in my practice, and have been much benefited by its use in my own case, which is one of Atonic Dyspepsia.
